Subject: Extended Expiration of iHealth Covid-19, Self-Test Kits

Date: July 22nd, 2022

Griswold Public Schools have been supplying community members, upon request, with the iHealth Covid-19 Self-Test Kits. On March 29th, 2022, the FDA granted extended expiration dates of certain manufacturers of at-home, rapid antigen Covid-19 Tests. iHealth Labs extended their tests from 6-months to a 9-months shelf-life. Therefore, if you have an iHealth Covid-19 Self-Test Kit with an expiration date that has recently come to pass, that expiration date has been extended. Please see the attached list to determine the new expiration date for an iHealth Covid-19 Self Test Kit.

Please note that Griswold Public Schools have a limited, remaining supply of iHealth Covid-19 Self-Test Kits. If a Griswold community member requests a kit, please contact one of our offices. We are happy to schedule a time for an adult to retrieve a self-test kit; we do not provide self-test kits to students, however, we are happy to provide the kits to parents and guardians.
