Dear Griswold Community:

We hope that this invitation finds you and your family well. We are inviting you to attend our District Partnership Advisory Council meetings on the dates listed below. This forum offers all Griswold community members opportunities to learn more about our students, their achievements, and our collaborative work as a school district and community. In an effort to enlist broad participation and representation, all stakeholders are welcome to attend. At our meetings, refreshments are served and gift raffles are presented at the end of the meeting.

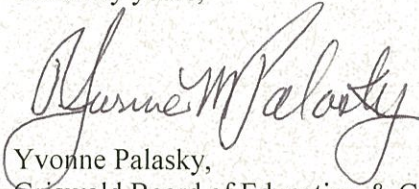

The District Partnership Advisory Council will meet monthly on the first Thursday in different locations throughout the community. Our meetings will start at 7pm and last approximately an hour long. We will follow the schedule below:
